1. Purpose

This Policy outlines the delegated authority from the Board of Directors of S P Jain London School of Management (the School) to committees or persons to make key corporate, academic and operational decisions. It provides the principles of delegation, including the requirement for review and monitoring of delegations to ensure they remain appropriate.

2. Scope

The Policy applies to the Board of Directors, the Academic Board and their sub-committees and senior members of staff.

3. Definition of Terms

Delegate means the committee or body of the School, staff member or officer to whom or to which a delegation of authority has been made under this policy.

Delegation of Authority is the assignment of responsibility to another person to carry out specific activities and decision making. However, the person who has delegated the task remains accountable for the outcome of the delegated work.

Board of Directors (BoD) is made up of independent directors who are responsible for the overall governance of the School. The BoD is the governing body of the School.

Academic Board (AB) is made up of external and internal members and is authorised by the BoD to provide academic leadership to the School.

Committee refers to any committee established by the Board of Directors in accordance with the Constitution.

Director means a director of S P Jain London School of Management who has been duly appointed.

Person means the person occupying a particular position within the School.

4. Policy Principles

- a. Delegations are made to a position in the organisational structure, not to an individual occupying a position. Individuals are however, responsible and accountable for decisions that they make in exercising these delegations.
- b. Delegations and delegates must maintain compliance with relevant legislation, regulations, the School's Governance Charter and relevant policies.
- c. Delegates must be aware of and refer to all relevant policies, procedures and guidelines as well as external legislative requirements when exercising delegations.
- d. Delegates must maintain records and any other form of documentation relevant to the exercise of their delegation.
- e. Delegates must report all pertinent matters to the body to which authority has been delegated from and documented in the meeting minutes.
- f. A delegate may, in the exercise of a delegated function, exercise other functions that are incidental or necessary to complete the delegated function. This means that a delegate can sign documents or give approval considered necessary to properly exercise the delegation, if they have been delegated decision-making authority.
- g. A delegate may appoint another staff member, officer, committee or body to provide advice about the exercise of delegated authority including decision-making. However, the delegate always remains responsible and accountable for the decision or action.
- h. Some delegations include a specific requirement for the delegate to seek advice before exercising the delegation. The delegate must be able to provide evidence of this consultation.
- i. Financial delegations are to be exercised within the budget approved by the Board of Directors and adhere to any limits or restrictions documented in the Scheme of Delegation at Appendix 1.
- j. The delegations set out in the Scheme of Delegation are the only valid delegations for which authorisations are permitted.
- k. Delegations should be reviewed at least annually to monitor their effectiveness and determine if they remain appropriate.

5. Instruments of Delegation

- a. The Board of Directors of the School has developed terms of reference for the relevant sub-committees which are the instruments of delegation, that have been approved by the Board of Directors to these committees.
- b. This schedule at Appendix 1 sets out the delegations to individual positions.

6. Implementation

- a. The Board of Directors has delegated authority to sub-committees, consistent with the Memorandum and Articles of Association at Article 5 and established terms of reference for the delegated subcommittees. The terms of reference for each sub-committee outlines the decision-making capacity and responsibilities for each sub-committee, and the Scheme of Delegation outlines further details of the delegations and any restrictions imposed.
- b. Delegations should only be authorised to committees or persons that appropriate expertise to carry out the function effectively.
- c. The Board of Directors may still exercise its powers even though they may have been delegated. The Articles do not allow for sub-delegations and therefore all delegations must be from the Board of Directors.
- d. The approved Scheme of Delegation contains the only authorised delegations. Each approved revision immediately supersedes any previous delegated authority. The Schedule should be updated after each review of delegations.

7. Conflicts of Interest

- a. If a delegate believes there is a real or perceived conflict of interest, the delegate must not exercise the delegated authority. In deciding whether there is a conflict of interest, delegates must ensure that there would be no direct or indirect benefit in exercising the delegation.

8. Breaches of Delegated Authority

- a. Breaches of delegated authority are considered as serious and may be dealt with under the Disciplinary policy. Employees or committee members who believe that a delegation has been inappropriately exercised are obliged to report the matter to the Chief Operating Officer, the Dean or the Chair of the Board of Directors.

Appendix 1 – Scheme of Delegation

This Scheme of Delegation summarises the key powers that have been delegated. Whilst there is no official delegation warranted for the terms of reference for the Board of Directors (because this is implied within the grant of power to the board to manage the company contained within the company's articles), key decisions are listed in this register for ease of identification of decision-making powers and regulatory purposes.

The delegations listed in the Scheme below are the only authorised delegations and supersede any previous delegated authority.
